When the Body Says Yes!

Engage the movement of life's longing for itself.

Enter the infinite play of flesh and breath.

Move in joyous union with universal energy.

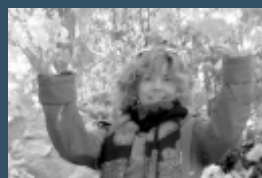

Lavish respect and attention in the primacy of the embodied now.

Discover gestures of new life birthing in creation.

Directly experience the relaxation of effort, when the body says Yes!

Penny Allport has been facilitating groups and individuals for over twenty years in Yoga, Continuum Movement & Montage, perceptual inquiry, dream exploration, process oriented painting and writing and ceremony. The infinite imagination of the natural world continually informs and inspires her offerings.

Private sessions are also available at Yoga on 7th.
